

Sunday, December 8, 2019
beginning at 3:00pm

The 2019 Bryan-College Station Christmas Parade “A Hometown Christmas” is sponsored by SIG Insurance Services, LLC, College Station Professional Firefighters Association, The Eagle & TAMU Transportation Services. This year’s parade will begin today at 3 p.m. Santa’s helpers will be collecting letters from children along the route. Kids, don’t forget to include your return address so Santa can write you a letter back!

Parade Judges

The Parade Committee expresses thanks to the following individuals who have committed their time to be judges at this year’s parade:

Aaron Aleman, Chris Alvarado, Savannah Barerra - Lions Pride Sports, Bonnie Bollinger, Keylie Carson - Lions Pride Sports, Michael Casaretto, Maria Doan, Janice Dueitt, Cat & Chris Fehr, Gabby Gonzales - Expert Marketing Advisors, Gail Guajardo - Tollie's Bounce House Rentals, David Keller, Rachelle Kubricht - Re/Max Cortiers, Stacy Liles, Margaret Lomas Carpenter, Debbie Montalbano - Casa Rodriguez, Bobby Murphy - Remax Bryan/College Station, Jerry Ramirez, Mark & Janelle Ramirez - Ramirez Lawn Service, Andrea Reyna, Freddy & Lisa Rodriguez - The Clean Up Crew, Kristin Rodriguez - Shine Pole & Aerial Fitness Studio, Robby Smith - Integrity Flo, Carolyn Stigler and Glen & Tim Vigus - GT Studios.

1. John Comstock, The 13th Man
Grand Marshall

2. United State Submarine Veterans, Inc.
Mission Complete-Inbound for Homeport
This organization is comprised of submariners from World War II, Korea, The Cold War and Todays Modern Fleet. Its purpose is to "Perpetuate the memory of our shipmates who gave their lives for freedom.” During World War II, the Submarine Fleet comprised less than two per cent of the total US Naval Force. This small force destroyed fifty-five per cent of the Japanese maritime Fleet. Never before had such a small Naval Force accomplished so much. The cost was the lives of 3500 sailors who quietly paid the ultimate price fighting under the oceans, earning The Force the nickname: THE SILENT SERVICE

3. George H. W. Bush Composite Squadron Civil Air Patrol
Civil Air patrol is a volunteer organization whose membership includes a cadet program for teenage youth, providing leadership and aerospace education and community service experience. CAP also performs aerospace education and emergency services for various governmental and private agencies, such as local law enforcement and the American Red Cross.

4. Bryan ISD Air Force JROTC
60 Cadets marching in formation with banner and color guard leader.

5. Bryan High School Band
136 people/band and color guard

6. Bryan High School Shy-Annes
Shy-Annes, Managers and Escorts will participate in the parade on foot. Shye-Annes will perform various pom routines. Managers and Escorts will walk in front of the formation displaying our organizations sign.

7. Bryan High School Cheerleaders
The 2019-2020 Bryan High Viking Cheerleaders would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays. Varsity - Emily Robertson(Lead Captain), Phoebe Hancock (Varsity Captain), Ceni Banks, Claire Crawford, Isabella Estrada, Kaedyn Filburn, Mikayla Luna, Rosalinda Medrano, Abigail Mendez, Maci Nash, Julianna Perea, Erin Ross, Morgan Sowders, Joy Wells; Junior Varsity-Amber Celian (JV Captain), Sophie Blackburn, Sophia Gutierrez, MaKayla Hicks, Michelle Hicks, Corinne Mayerhoff, Emily Parker, Hailye Pierce, Carlie Richardson, Addison Seay, MaKayla Trejo; Viking Mascot Thor-Thomas Erhardt; manager-Mackenzie Luna and Sergio Umanzor; Head Coach-Latisha Moody; Assistant Coach-Sydney Bemrick.

8. Bryan ISD Transportation Department
The Grinch that Stole the School Bus
Bryan ISD School Bus, decorated, several "elves" and 1 Grinch, 1 driver.

9. Bryan Fire Department
The Bryan Fire Department currently employs over 150 people and responded to over 12,500 calls for assistance in 2018.

10. City of Bryan - Mayor Andrew Nelson

Parade Awards

First & second place plaques will be awarded to the best entries in each of the following divisions:
Community/Service (Adult)
Community/Service (Youth)
Schools, Elementary
Schools, High School & Middle School
Schools, Collegiate
Commercial, Large Business
Commercial, Small Business
Bands/Music
Mounted Entry

Grand Prize - Best Overall Entry
in the Parade

$500 Cash Award: Judging Criteria
1. Compliance with the regulations
2. Relevance to the theme
3. Overall appeal & entertainment value
All floats & specialty entries are eligible for this award.

Judges’ Award - Best Entry for Adherence to
Theme sponsored by City Bank

$400 Cash Award: Judging Criteria
1. Compliance with the regulations
2. Relevance to the theme
3. Originality, color & design
4. Overall appeal & entertainment value
All floats & specialty entries are eligible for this award.

“Green” Award - Most Earth-Friendly Entry
sponsored by BVR Waste & Recycling

$300 Cash Award
The Green Award will be given to the most environmentally friendly and recyclable-conscious entry.

Award of Excellence - Best Entry for Creativity
& Originality

$200 Cash Award: Judging Criteria
1. Compliance with the regulations
2. Originality, color & design
3. Overall appeal & entertainment value
All floats are eligible.

Pooper Scooper Special Award

$100 Cash Award
For the mounted units, an award will be given for the best decorated “Pooper Scooper.”

These awards may be won concurrently with a division award, but no entry may win two overall awards.

11. Bryan Parks & Recreation
A Hometown Christmas Afternoon
After a busy morning opening presents there's nothing better watching the kids head to their neighborhood park with their new toys to play! Bryan Parks and Recreation loves to help bring some of the Christmas spirit to all the boys and girls as they play at the park making memories they will cherish for a lifetime!

12. Allen Academy
Gingerbread Spice & Everything Nice
Serving the Brazos Valley since 1886, Allen Academy is delighted to be taking part in this year's BCS Christmas parade with a "Gingerbread Spice and Everything Nice" themed float! Our spirited mascot, Rambler, is proud to show off his gingerbread creation and has invited some of the sweetest kids we know along for the ride! As the only Pre-K through 12th grade independent school in the Brazos Valley, our featured guests include students as young as 3 years old, all the way through High School senior athletes! Rambler is accompanied by some of our very own Allen Rams Cheerleaders and student ambassadors, who help welcome visitors to campus throughout the year.

13. Bryan/College Station Habitat for Humanity
Habitat Holiday Hometown Express
The Habitat Holiday Hometown Express will be pulling into Bryan, Texas with an engine and boxcar draped in an American Flag

14. Urgent Animals of Hearne
Forever Home for Christmas
Urgent Animals of Hearne rescues, fosters and adopts dogs and cats from Robertson County Animal Control. In 6 years, we have saved 2600 animals. We are all volunteers with no support from local government. All funds come from donations. Without Urgent Animals of Hearne, dogs & cats were killed for space. With our home-based foster program, no animals have been killed for space in 6 years. Please help us by fostering or adopting rescue pets in your FOREVER HOME!

15. FUJIFILM Diosynth Biotechnologies
A Very BiotechChristmas
FUJIFILM Diosynth Biotechnologies is delighted to participate in the Annual Christmas Parade with a very special float. We want to be a part of College Station/City of Bryan community as we celebrate the Christmas Holiday. Our float will include very special characters: Victor Virus and Charlotte Cho. These characters are very special and were created as part of our education STEM initiative for children. Victor and Charlotte will be part of our float and will be distributing Holiday Cheer to all. Our employees will be wearing the costumes. We are so happy to bring our Partner for Life message which is full of hope and make sure the community knows what an important part they play.

16. Aggieland Scuba Dive Club
An Undersea Home for the Holidays at "Bikini Bottom"
Sponge Bob & Friends, sea creatures walking handing out candy, characters on float.

17. Brazos Valley Ford Model A Club
Henry Ford's Model A's were made from 1928-1931. The Brazos Valley A's club meets monthly as well as actively tours in Texas & Nationally. Locally, the club is active in events & community service to Still Creek Ranch and assisted living facilities. The BVA's welcome new members & wishes everyone an old-time "Merry Christmas"!

Parade Route

The Parade will begin at Lot 50 on the Texas A&M campus & travel east on University Drive to Texas Ave. The Parade will then travel north & continue to Sulphur Springs Road.

2019 Parade Committee

Penny Zent, Community Volunteer
Missy Pollard, SIG Insurance Services, LLC
Patrick Dugan, CS Professional Firefighters Assoc
Dean Swartzlander, Bryan Police Department
Greg Leeth, College Station Police Department
Denise Socia, SIG Insurance Services, LLC
Trish Eller, SIG Insurance Services, LLC
Glenda Pfitzer, SIG Insurance Services, LLC
Margaret Lomas Carpenter, TAMU

Special Thanks!

SIG Insurance Service, LLC, College Station Professional Firefighters Assoc, The Eagle, TAMU Transportation Services and the Parade Committee wishes to thank the following individuals & organizations for assisting with the parade in the form of volunteer hours or sponsorships. We could not have done it without you! Merry Christmas!

Brazos County Sherriff’s Department
College Station Police Department
Bryan Police Department
College Station Parks & Recreation
City of College Station
City of Bryan
City Bank
BVR Waste and Recycling
Ron Schmidt, Texas Commercial Waste
Kevin Hurley, Texas A&M Athletic Department
Jim Elmquist
Culpepper Properties
Oldham Goodwin Group, LLC
Crockett Elementary
Wayne Granzin, Understand, Inc.

All local media for their help in promoting the parade; dignitaries for taking the time out of their busy schedules to view & take part in this community event; the many businesses, families, & individuals who took time & effort to participate in the 2019 Bryan/College Station Christmas Parade.

Hey Kids! Santa and his elves will be at the parade to personally accept your letter to Santa! Be sure to put your mailing address on them so Santa can write you back!

18. College Station High School Cheer
Please welcome College Station High School Cheer and Cooper the Cougar. These young ladies are led by the Captain Andaisa Richardson and their Co-Captain, Elizabeth West. They won numerous awards at their UCA Camp over the summer and are proud to be the Spirit of College Station High School.

19. College Station High School Band and Guard
The College Station HS Band is under the Direction of Jon Seale, Michael Dixon and Color guard Director Jessica Delgado. The Cougar Band has just completed another outstanding marching season including being named the Grand Champion of the Madisonville US Bans Showcase as well as the Grand Champion of the 2019 Blinn Buccaneer Marching Festival. The Cougar Band and Guard also set a School and District record this year by placing 5th at the UIL Area 1 Marching Contest. The College Station HS Band and Guard is made up of 200 outstanding young men and women who value and appreciate the power of Fine Arts and Music Education in our public schools. Special thanks to all the students and parent volunteers for making our organization outstanding!

20. College Station ISD Transportation
Decorated school bus with transportation employees and children. Reminding everyone that we are safe, courteous and efficient.

21. City of College Station
City of College Station Holiday Howdy Hayride
The City of College Station presents: The Holiday Howdy hayride. Our floats depict the vision of an old, country-style hayride as it makes its way through town spreading holiday cheer. As we know, it takes a village to pull off Santa's magic. We imagine his village looks a lot like ours! Riding along are College Station’s City Council, City Manager's Office, Parks Board members, their families and special guests. We wish everyone a wonderful holiday season and, don't forget, guests can continue the family tradition of viewing Christmas light displays at the beautiful 47 acre Stephen C. Beachy Central Park through New year's Day. The College Station City Council is comprised of: Mayor Karl Mooney, Councilman Bob Brick, Councilman John Crompton, Councilwoman Linda Harvell, Councilwoman Elianor Vessali, Councilman John Nichols, Councilman Dennis Malloney. All city council positions are elected at-large, meaning all College Station voters decide these seven seats.

22. SPJST
A Frozen Christmas
It’s time to share the magic of the merriest season of all. SPJST presents “A Frozen Christmas.” Elsa, Anna, Olaf, and Sven gather with members of SPJST Lodge 9, Snook Youth Club for a Christmas journey of family and togetherness. The float includes more than 4,000 energy-efficient LED lights. SPJST's vision is to provide a wholesome family environment; to encourage cherished Czech traditions; and to provide high quality, competitive life insurance for its members. SPJST is a not-for-profit fraternal benefit society that has been playing a vital role in communities across Texas for 122 years. Each year, SPJST continues to build on its original mission and significantly enriches the lives of its members and those whom they serve.

23. Trail Life USA

O Little Town of Bethlehem

Joseph traveled with his wife Mary to his home town of Bethlehem, and while they were there, the most momentous event in human history occurred when Mary gave birth to Jesus, the Messiah. Our float depicts the place where Jesus was born, in a Manger.

24. American Heritage Girls Troops TX-7356,TX 1860, TX-0012; Come Home to Christ for Christmas

Three American Heritage Girls Troops, an organization that builds up women of integrity through faith and education, are displaying a home town scene on and around the float along with carolers. The focus of their float is a white church with open doors, welcoming all into God's house. Carolers throughout the float and walking along side, sing psalms of praise to the Christ child and of the promise of hope and forgiveness.

25. Brazos County 4H Faith Riders Mounted Drill Team

The Faith Riders are a 4H group of kids from Brazos and surrounding counties. They are 6 time Precision Drill State Champions, Five time Speed Drill Champions.

26. Briella Burchell - Little Miss World Universal Beauty

27. Bryan Chapter 222 Order of the Eastern Star Te OES and Masons are alive and well in the Brazos Valley

28. College Hunks Hauling Junk & Moving College H.U.N.K.S. (Honest, Uniformed, Nice, Knowledgeable, Service)

Hauling Junk & Moving is proud to be a part of the Bryan College Station Community. We are a proud partner of Feeding Children Everywhere. For every moving or junk removal service we complete, we'll provide a hungry child with 2 nutritious meals.

29. Josephine Ireland and Jane Anderson Christmas Scoot'n

My 91 year old Mom (Jane Anderson) is riding with me on the back of a bright red Honda Scooter. She came to Bryan in 1962 and has been a very active volunteer in Bryan/College Station. She has ridden her horses in this parade many times!

30. Cornerstone Christian Academy Downtown Bryan at Christmas

The trailer will have a cut-out of downtown Bryan with lamps and Christmas trees. The children will be dressed up in 18th century clothing.

31. The Salvation Army Bryan/College Station

At Christmas, love has an Army that fights for good. This year marks the 129th anniversary of the red Kettle Campaign. In 1890, the first bell ringer took to the streets of San Francisco, CA to raise funds to provide the homeless with a Thanksgiving dinner. Today, bell ringers take to the streets across America to meet the needs of the local community. You can become a bell ringer by going to www.salvationarmybc.org.

32. Bryan Animal Center & Blinn Veterinary Technology Program

Home for the Pawlidays

Home for the Pawlidays is our wish for all of the animals at the Bryan Animal Center during this year's holiday season. A cozy home with lots of toys and a family of their own to love. Our float will represent a cozy home that we hope all of the animals at the Center get this Christmas

33. Keep It Clean The Cleanest Gift Under the Tree

The cleanest gift under the tree-Keep It Clean is a new business that provides cleanings and sanitizes residential and commercial dumpsters here in the BCS and surrounding areas!

34. Texas A&M Water Ski Club

We will be towing a ski boat behind a truck. We plan to decorate the boat with Christmas streamers/large pretend presents, etc. Typically we have team members riding inside of the boat as well as walking down the street near the boat passing out candy.

35. Street Cartel Car & Truck Club – Bryan

We will decorate the vehicles with Christmas garland, stickers, inflatables, fake snow and Christmas music.

36. Rudder High School Marching Band

37. Sheriff's Office of Brazos County Hometown on Duty at Christmas

Sheriff's Squad Car with Sheriff Kirk, Sheriff's SUV's w/Deputy, Sheriff's Animal Control Truck w/Horse Trailer, Sheriff's Squad Car w/Deputy, Sheriff's SUV w/Deputy.

38. Brazos Co. Precinct 1 Elected Officials

Commissioner: Steve Aldrich, Justice of the Peace: Kenny Elliott, Constable Pct: Jeff Reeves

39. Brazos County Firefighter's Association

The Brazos County Firefighter's Association is an association of the Fire Departments in Brazos County. Four Volunteer Fire Departments serve the areas of Brazos County outside of the city limits of Bryan & College Station with Fire, Rescue and EMS first responder services. The fire departments of the cities of Bryan, College Station and Navasota are also members of the association. All member departments work and train together and strive to provide excellent service to our community.

40. Jason James for Sheriff; Santa's Secret Service

As a law enforcement officer, Jason James knows how to protect and serve. He's actually been called in to protect our parade Santa on multiple occasions, so his float will be featuring "Santa's Secret Service". Dressed in black suits with matching ear pieces, "elf officers" will walk along the float to ensure Santa's safety.

41.Avant Garde - College Prep Services

Avant Garde - College Prep Services is your one-stop destination for college and test preparation in Bryan/College Station and surrounding areas. We manage every aspect of the college preparation experience through a variety of unique services. Families can customize their experience with us choosing to utilize all we have to offer, or select individual resources.

42. Pride Community Center, Inc. Rainbow Wonderland

Rainbow snowflakes dust the wonderland of the Brazos Valley under the auspices of Pride Community Center, Pride Community Center builds community, provides support and raises awareness in the Brazos Valley for individuals whose sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression is often overlooked or dismissed in today's society. Pride Community Center celebrates the full spectrum of diversity that encompasses our lives, our community, and our neighbors.

43. KBTX Media

There will be 10-12 participants. 2 will be driving the WeatherEdge and KBTX Live Van. Both vehicles are SUV's. The other participants will walk along the vehicles while dressed in Santa Hats

44. Girl Scouts of Central Texas A Howdy Christmas Story

Girl Scouts of Central Texas Bryan/College Station service unit serves girls in the BCS area. Activities include camping, hiking, STEM, among many others. The float is celebrating a hometown Christmas at our own Camp Howdy.

45. TAMU Chinese School Glance of Chinese Culture

About 50 students, teachers and parents from TAMU Chinese School will have marching parade and showcase some traditional Chinese costume, dance and culture. More information about us could be found from our website at: <http://tamuchineseschool.org/>

46. Oscar and Sons' Body Shop Candyland to the North Pole

King Kande, Lord Licorice, Queen Frostine, Mr. Mint, Gingerbread Men, Lollipop Princess

47. Dallas Cowboys Fans B/CS

We are a group of local fans of the Dallas Cowboys. We are DIE HARD FANS and support our team when they are 1-15 or 15-1. We gather on Sundays at local Community parks or members residences and watch the game and spread friendship and stories. We establish respect and tolerance and sportsmanship to our children and younger members.

48. Fiestas Patrias Mexicanans of Bryan/College Station King and Queen

Two Vehicles riding two people in each car plus driver. Christmas theme decorations.

49. Wellborn Road Veterinary Medical Center Unleash the Holiday Cheer

Wellborn Road Vet wants you to have a very, Merry Christmas and to enjoy it with your furry friends. Today we have several members of the clinic handing out treats for both you and your pets. We are also displaying some of our favorite moments we encounter with our animals during the holidays. Whether it is relaxing by the fireplace or hanging around the tree, animals always seem to make it a little more interesting. Again, we hope you have a PuRR-fect Christmas and a PAW-sitively, happy Holiday Season

50. Elite Art of Phlebotomy Training

51. Legacy Ace Hardware and The Bear Mountain

20' trailer with square hay bales, 8-12 people in Christmas attire, 1-2 dogs, Christmas inflatables, Christmas décor on the trailer, will pass out packaged candy, various stickers, playing Christmas music.

52. American legion Post 159 100 Years of Service

Truck pulling a trailer with members riding in the trailer.

53. A&M Consolidated Tiger Band

54. A&M Consolidated Bengal Belles

Dance and drill team, the Sweethearts of College Station!

55. A&M Consolidated Tiger Cheer Cheerleaders walking in the parade.

56. Lil Wranglers

40-50 kids walking/dancing. Truck with flatbed trailer.

57. Texas Bucket List Humming Along to Christmas with Texas Bucket List

Hummer Truck and 4 riders

58. Spirit of Texas Bank

Spirit of Texas Bank will use bus, golf cart and kid train. Decorated with garland and Christmas lights.

59. Brazos Valley Roller Derby

Brazos Valley Roller Derby (BVRD); is a group of women (and men) that have come together through shared enthusiasm for a new rise in self-expression. We are a motley crew of incredibly distinct people who have been looking for their missing outlet. All people are welcome. We have a wide variety of people, professions, and personalities. Our group includes: teachers, hair dressers, professors, scientists, veterinarians, mechanics, stay at home moms and even a local pastor! Motto: Skate Fast, Die Pretty. Founded in February 2010, we play by WFTDA (Women's Flat Track Derby Association) rules. We seek to rejuvenate the community by fostering athleticism, empowerment, and sportsmanship among skaters and supporters, while benefiting local non-profit organizations through our charitable donations and services.

60. Texas A&M Cheer Squad

The Texas A&M Cheer Squad is an all-girl competitive cheerleading team that competes nationally against some of the best NCAA collegiate cheerleading programs in the country. Due to Texas A&M University traditions, the cheer squad is strictly competitive and is a member of the Texas A&M Sport Clubs Association with the Department of Recreational Sports. The cheer squad will travel back to Nationals in April to defend our title of 2 times, back to back, collegiate national champions. 2019-2020 Texas A&M Cheer Squad: Hannah Albright, laelah Bickham, Jordin Bourg, Hannah Cooper, Anna Councill, Avery Daniels, Tori Davis, Breanne Duprie, Lauren Ellis, Brianna Ghattas, Julia Greenwood, Katie Krall, Maddie Mack, Kileigh Melton, Angelica Mena, Kennedy Moore, Lauren Ramirez, Marissa Ramsey, Cameron Renfrow, Miranda Ridley, Savannah Rios, Mari-tate Roush, Jordan Selbst, Lauren Szymanski, and Ashley Wolfram.

61. Mathnasium Giving the Gift of Math

Merry Christmas from Mathnasium! Aaron Willis in Bryan & Jason Hawkins in College Station(along with over 2 dozen expert math instructors) have helped 1000's of kids get better at math. We are passionate about helping kids & increasing their confidence through the gift of math. On our float today, you can see many of those instructors & students.

62. Powersports

63. Cub Scout Pack 62 Cub Scout Hometown Values

Cub Scout Pack 62 serves boys and girls in south College Station. The pack's activities include camping, hiking, community service and classic events such as the Pinewood Derby and The Annual Blue and Gold Banquet. This year's pack service activities include, the annual Scouting for Food food drive and outdoor cleanup projects in our community. For our float, the Pack 62 Cub Scouts are in the cheerful Christmas spirit sharing their values with their hometown.

64. Blinn College Dental Hygiene SCADHA Student Organization

SS Tooth Ferry: Sailing Home and Spreading Smiles

The captain from the Blinn College Dental Hygiene Program is smiling big as he is sailing in on the SS Tooth Ferry made from recycled wooden pallets. He is accompanied by tooth fairies represented by the students and faculty who are from many different hometowns across Texas. The tooth fairies will be spreading smiles to everyone who calls Bryan or College Station their hometown by handing out toothbrushes, toothpaste, and information about their clinic! This is Blinn college Dental Hygiene's 21st year to enter the BCS Christmas Parade. The tooth fairies wish everyone a happy, healthy, Hometown Christmas

65. A-1Towing Old Time Christmas

Our family business showing our family traditions to our beloved town and what “Hometown Christmas” means to us.

66. Camp Gladiator

Camp Gladiator is a four-week outdoor group fitness program for all fitness levels. We are a life-changing fitness movement dedicated to transforming lives through dynamic, fun and challenging workouts led by certified personal trainers who inspire you to discover your best self. Camp Gladiator launched in Dallas, Texas in 2008 with 40 people in a parking lot and has grown to over 3,500 locations nationwide. CG spread to the Brazos Valley in January 2018 and currently offers over 120 local workouts per week across dozens of locations, all led by a trainer with a passion to impact as many lives as possible. We focus on group fitness because we believe we are all Better Together.

67. Clean R Cans

Trash can cleaning truck with Christmas decorations and trash can mascot, Rowdy along for the ride.

68. R & J Towing and Recovery

69. Northview Baptist Church Home for Christmas

Northview Baptist Church wishes hometown Bryan, Texas a very Merry Christmas. The float features a Bryan home ready for Christmas. Complete with a picket-fenced yard, the house is decorated and ready for Christmas. Now family and friends can enjoy being home for Christmas as they gather to exchange gifts and celebrate the true meaning of Christmas. Northview Baptist joyfully encourages you to attend the church of your choice to celebrate Jesus, the Reason for the Season.

70. BVR Waste and Recycling

Driving a company collection vehicle with logo and lights.

71. New Horizons A Toy Story Christmas

Decorating with blocks and Toy Story characters

72. Coldwell Banker Apex REALTORS Don't Find your "Home Alone"

Don't find your "Home Alone!" Our teams of Realtors® are always here to help! Coldwell Banker Apex, Realtors has received national acclaim as the #1 Woman Owned Coldwell Banker in the US. Additionally, Coldwell Banker Apex, Realtors ranks in the top 70 Largest Real Estate Firm in the United States per REAL Trends. Their commitment to excellence and personal care for their clients has earned Coldwell Banker the Best of the Brazos Valley recognition for 13 consecutive years. With residential, commercial, & relocation services, they are here your resource for all your real estate needs. Whether buying or selling, you are never ALONE with our REALTORS®!

73. SANTA!

Santa and his elves are announcing the official start to the Christmas Season. Santa's helpers are collecting Christmas lists from all the boys and girls along the parade.