- 2. Ross Volunteers

The Ross Volunteer Company is the oldest honor guard and drill team of its kind in the state of Texas. The honor guard was formed in 1887 and was originally named the Scott Volunteers. In 1898, the unit was renamed in honor of Lawrence Sullivan Ross, former governor of the state of Texas and President of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas. The company, which serves as the official Honor Guard of the Governor of Texas, is composed of junior and senior cadets. The cadets wear very distinctive white uniform with yellow trim, while officers wear a solid red sash around the waist of their uniforms. The Ross Volunteers assist with numerous events across our city, state and nation each year. The company serves as the Honor Guard of King Rex, the King of Mardi Gras, in New Orleans and has marched in the King Rex Parade since 1947.
